MUNROE FAMILY

The journey of a family impacted by childhood cancer, and how Camp Quality can help – every step of the way.

Lucy and Jason Munroe live in regional Australia with their three kids, Olivia, Ryan and Will. They love spending family time together.

Will is 3 years old when he starts getting strange pains. Lucy takes him to the doctor, and they are sent to Sydney for further tests. The family is then given the heartbreaking news that Will has cancer.

On the Happiness Hub, Will finds videos of stories read aloud, kids' activities, and funny puppets. Lucy loves the family wellbeing tips, and Olivia and Ryan try the recipes and bake cookies for Will.

Lucy feels overwhelmed as a mum and accesses the Parenting Through Cancer website to book free counselling, connect with other parents and read helpful articles. Jason also realises he needs support, so rings the free telephone counselling service on 1800 945 215.

Will is scared and unsure about the procedures he faces. Brooke, a Camp Quality-funded Child Life Therapist at the hospital, introduces medical-play techniques and teaches him proven coping skills to ease his anxiety.

Will hates being in hospital, but when the cheeky Camp Quality Puppets pay him a fun-filled visit he laughs again. He would love to see them more between visits, so Jason books a Puppet Digital Playdate for Will on his i

CANCER

Will returns to school and the other kids don't understand why he looks different. The Camp Quality Puppets visit the school to teach kids about cancer, reduce bullying, and create a supportive environment.

The family spend a day out together and make happy memories. Old friends from hospital are also there, and new friendships are made too.

Will relapses and returns to hospital.
Olivia and Ryan go on a Kids' Camp,

It's a confusing time for Olivia and Ryan. The information on the Kids' Guide to Cancer app helps them understand what is happening to their little brother.

Will is getting much better. The Munroe family register for upcoming fundraising events, so they can raise money to help families just like theirs.
